

NATIONAL MULTIETHNIC DONOR AWARENESS MONTH

Sharon Preethika Komanapalli

Sharon Preethika Komanapalli was a vibrant and compassionate young woman, cherished as a loving daughter, great sister to her beloved brother, and treasured granddaughter. Known for her humor and unwavering friendships, she brought joy to everyone around her. A talented musician, she played five instruments and contributed to both her school band and orchestra. Sharon was also the family's creative baker, crafting personalized cakes and gourmet meals for loved ones. Her sensitivity and kindness were matched by her generosity—qualities that defined her life and legacy. In her passing, Sharon saved three lives through organ donation, a final act of selflessness that reflected the beautiful soul she was.

DONORNETWORKWEST.org

