Benjamin Robles
Kidney Donor

His final gift demonstrated his will to share the Good News of the Gospel by loving and helping others in their greatest time of need. ♥

Benjamin was a beloved husband, father and friend. His most important role: grandfather. His loving kindness and wisdom was admired by all who knew him. Benjamin loved spending his time with family and friends. He also enjoyed reading, spending time in prayer and studying the bible. He was highly devoted to his local church's prayer group and loved learning from his fellow church brothers and sisters. Benjamin passed unexpectedly on April 11th, 2025 from a brain aneurysm and saved one life with the gift of his liver. His final gift demonstrated his will to share the Good News of the Gospel by loving and helping others in their greatest time of need.
